Scripture Readings

1st Reading Genesis 24: 34-38, 42-49, 58-67 “Abraham did not wish his son Isaac to marry a local Canaanite and sent his servant out to find a wife for Isaac. In this reading, the servant speaks to Rebekah at an oasis in northern Mesopotamia. She displays abundant hospitality and is chosen to be the wife of Isaac.”

Psalm 45:11-18 Our Help Is In The Name of The Lord”

2nd Reading Romans 7:15-25 “Paul acknowledges the inner conflict of conscience, (i.e. between what is morally right and the pull to follow one’s own sinful inclinations). Whether we conclude that Paul is describing the experience of an unbeliever, a mature believer or an immature believer, the point remains that human sin cannot be overcome by the law.”
